Queen unveils Bletchley Park wartime tribute

HER Majesty The Queen and Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, visited Bletchley Park on Friday.

They were greeted by dignitaries including Acting Chief Superintendent Nikki Ross, MP Iain Stewart, chief executive of Milton Keynes Council David Hill and mayor Alan Richards and his wife, Christina.

The Queen unveiled a memorial to the veterans who served at the park during the war and met some of them and their families.

For more on this story and pictures, see pages 14 and 15.

Hospital services could be axed in NHS revamp

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE hospital could lose some vital services in a massive shake-up of the NHS across the region.

And one councillor believes the public will be kept in the dark about any changes until it is too late for them to have any influence over the process.

Milton Keynes Hospital is part of a review that means any of its services, such as maternity, cardiovascular or gynaecology, could be lost to other hospitals, however MK NEWS believes accident and emergency is likely to remain.

The hospital could also gain some services it does not currently offer to patients.

The Acute Services Review (ASR), which also includes hospitals in Northampton, Kettering, Bedford and Luton and Dunstable, was set up to consider how services will be provided across the region.

Councillor Nigel Long, chairman of Milton Keynes Council's Health and Community Wellbeing Select Committee, said: "My concerns are getting greater by the day.

"We fought for years for the hospital being the right size and that's in danger of being taken back.

"What's really worrying is this process is going on behind closed doors. The time they are proposing to consult with the public is December and my argument is by that time it will be a fait accompli.

"If there are proposals to take services away from Milton Keynes Hospital then it should be subject to a public vote."

He now hopes the chief executive of the new Milton Keynes and Northamptonshire Primary Care Trust (PCT) cluster, Professor John Parkes, will update his committee on the ASR.

Hospital chief executive Mark Millar insists patients will be at the heart of the review.

He said: "We believe working together is the best way to give the public high quality, sustainable and cost effective care. We realise that patients will be concerned this could result in changes to the services they value. This is why patients will be at the heart of the review, will have opportunities to contribute, and their best interests considered at all times.

"Our objective will be to ensure the people of Milton Keynes have access to high quality care as locally as is safe and economic for it to be."

A spokesman at the PCT has also moved to reassure patients, saying: "The ASR is in the earliest of stages. We have yet to agree a final timetable or specification for the review.

"Patients will be at the centre of the review. Whatever the outcome, the offer to patients and taxpayers will be safe, sustainable and cost-effective services."

Council's u-turn on land puts planned centre under threat

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

PLANS to build a community centre have been dashed as the council has decided to keep a piece of land it had originally pledged to give away.

Woughton Community Council was told it could use the site at the junction of Buckland Drive and Saxon Street, Netherfield, for the community.

It was working on ambitious plans but these have now been scuppered as Milton Keynes Council will not transfer the land.

Residents in Netherfield had formed The People's Project and hoped to build an all-purpose community centre for residents.

Volunteers have spent more than four years on the plan and between £1,500 to £2,000 has been invested, which will be reimbursed.

Community councillor Joyce Hall said that part of the vision was removing the stigma surrounding Netherfield.

She said: "We can't change our postcode but we can change the way in which Netherfield is perceived by others."

Steve Coventry, who is ward councillor for Woughton on Milton Keynes Council and a member of the community council, added the local authority had 'pulled the rug out'.

He said: "It's a real shame because we need people in places like Netherfield to work for the community.

"It's really hard to enthuse people and it's really knocked them now."

A spokesman for Milton Keynes Council said: "We are looking at the amalgamation of this site and an adjacent one in the council's ownership to see how we can extract value from the combined sites.

"If successful some of the proceeds could be reinvested into community facilities.

"We expect to work closely to find them an alternative community site."

Disappointed: Len Bagnall and Joyce Hall by the land in Netherfield

Station Square architect hopes for 'wow factor'

AN ARCHITECT who has drawn up plans for the city's Station Square is worried the latest council design will fail to make a memorable first impression.

As reported in MK NEWS, Milton Keynes Council unveiled its vision for the site last week and has pledged to transform the square into a 'gateway' for the city.

The £2.7million project will include better pedestrian access, improved and additional cycle shelters, a new bus stop area, dedicated pick up and drop off area and separate facilities for taxis.

But Ken Baker, an architect with city firm David Lock Associates, fears the plans will not produce an instant 'wow factor'.

He said: "You don't get a second chance to make a first impression and this is the only real gateway we have.

"We don't know what certain things are going to be made of and the quality is something which is very important."

Mr Baker drew up his own proposals in 2009 after rejecting initial council plans.

He has envisioned a space which favours pedestrians, as well as an extended concourse and a two-storey mezzanine.

Donated wood for boat project has a story to tell

BLETCHLEY Park and monks are among those who have donated their wood with a story to The Boat Project.

As reported by MK NEWS on July 6, performance company Lone Twin is building a 30-foot seafaring sailing boat made almost entirely from wood donated by the public as part of next year's IF Festival.

Yesterday residents were asked to hand over their donations at Midsummer Place, with the only stipulation being that each piece of wood must have a story.

Monks from the Nipponzan Myohoji temple donated a branch from one of the 1,000 cherry trees that surround their site at Willen, which was given to them by the Japanese town of Yoshino. Bletchley Park CEO Simon Greenish also handed over a plank that was part of one of the famous huts where the codebreakers cracked the German army and naval messages, shortening the Second World War by an estimated two years.

Cops issue e-fit over MK Bowl attempted rape

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

POLICE who are hunting a man who attempted to rape a 17-year-old girl outside the MK Bowl fear he may strike again.

The horrific ordeal took place at about 10pm last Wednesday when the victim was walking home.

A man grabbed her and pushed her into some bushes but the girl screamed and bravely fought off her attacker, who then ran away.

The suspect is described as Asian or tanned, 6ft, slim, with side burns and aged between 21 and 30 (see e-fit right).

He wore dirty white trainers, light blue slim fit jeans and a white top and may have been riding a green or turquoise bike with writing on the frame.

Officers fear the same man could have been responsible for another sexual assault that took place in Heelands on June 26.

On that occasion a 16-year-old girl was walking along the Redway by Station Drive at about 1pm when a man cycled past.

He asked for a kiss and then put his hands down her top and into her bra.

An arrest was made by police but this man has been released without charge, so the man police want to speak to is still at large.

DI Kelly Glister said there were similarities between the two cases and described the attempted rape as a 'serious and frightening incident'.

"It was a violent incident and if she hadn't fought him off the attack would have progressed," she added.

Residents are advised to remain vigilant and anyone with information is asked to call police on 0845 8 505 505.

Cabbie robbed by baseball bat 'gang'

A TAXI driver was hit with a baseball bat and robbed on Thursday night.

The driver was dropping off two women in Buntsy Court, Galley Hill, at about 11.45pm when he was set upon by a group of people who were standing around the entrance.

He was hit with the bat and knocked to the floor before his mobile phone and personal digital assistant were stolen from inside the taxi.

The main offender was a white man, 6ft, slim, in his mid-20s and wearing a grey tracksuit.

DC Greg Hughes said: "At this time I do not believe this is linked to the ongoing series of robberies on taxi drivers, however I am keeping an open mind."

Anyone with information should contact DC Hughes on 0845 8 505 505, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

■ Meanwhile, two men have been charged with other robberies of taxi drivers.

James Gardner, 27, of Arnos Grove, Monkston Park, has been charged with robbing a taxi driver in Larkland Road, Netherfield, on July 4.

Michael Powell, 27, of Melville Street, Northampton, has been charged with an incident in Shearmans, Fullers Slade, on June 11.

Both men appeared at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court on Saturday, and will now appear at Aylesbury Crown Court and Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court respectively on Friday.

DI Kelly Glister said: "Although we have charged these two men with robbery, there are still a number of outstanding robberies in Milton Keynes which are still under investigation."

Speed limit reduction is not answer to problem

SIR - I write regarding your story 'Residential streets to see speed limit cut to 20mph' in last week's paper.

I have lived in West Bletchley all of my life and there is nothing wrong with a 30mph speed limit as long as it is adhered to.

What on earth makes West Bletchley Council think that the people who blatantly ignore the current 30mph limit will take any notice of a 20mph one?

The answer is not to reduce the speed limit, but to enforce it – I know this is easier said than done, but if the council thinks it has come up with an idea of how to do so it should first use it to enforce the 30mph limit.

Reducing to 20mph but not enforcing it will make no difference at all to road safety, and will just waste taxpayers' money changing all the signs and suchlike.

Simon Waller
Bletchley

Frustration will be result

SIR - The plan to reduce the Whalley Drive speed limit to 20mph is illogical and unworkable.

One of the clearest and longest (one mile) roads in Bletchley has not been a problem for drivers or pedestrians.

Has a census been carried out to determine residents' views? As far as I know it hasn't!

Before Milton Keynes Council makes a decision, members should drive through Whalley Drive at 20mph and see how pointless it is.

Also, when they reach the Whaddon Way junction, perhaps they will see the real problem, which is the number of vehicles parked near the junction and an accident waiting to happen.

I do believe in safer roads and enforcing the 30mph limit, but a reduction to 20mph in Whalley Drive will cause yet further frustration to drivers and will do absolutely nothing to improve road safety.

Name withheld
West Bletchley

Residents oppose this plan

SIR - It has been reported in MK NEWS that West Bletchley Council approved a pilot scheme to try to stop speeding on some of the streets in West Bletchley, mainly around Melrose Avenue (between Whaddon Way and Whalley Drive), Westminster Drive and Whalley Drive.

As a resident of The Linx and also a member of the West Bletchley planning and environment committee who was present at the meeting, I strongly objected to the proposal to reduce the speed limit to 20mph around Melrose Avenue, Whalley Drive and Westminster Drive.

Tony Mabbott claims that all Neighbourhood Action Groups (NAG) consider speeding as one of the top priorities.

Have they bothered to consult the local car users?

As a member of the Denbigh and Leys NAG, I find the meetings are attended by a handful of people, mainly officials, and they do not represent the views of the local people. The local people are not aware of the existence of NAGs in their area.

After consultation with local residents in Abbey ward, the car owners are against a 20mph speed limit in Whalley Drive and Westminster Drive.

I agree there should be a speed restriction of 20mph near Abbeys Primary School in Melrose Avenue during school time, but 20mph in Whalley Drive and Westminster Drive may cause traffic congestion at peak times.

I request the car users living in my area write to West Bletchley Council and Milton Keynes Council objecting strongly to a 20mph speed limit in Whalley Drive and Westminster Drive.

Arun Vaidyanathan
West Bletchley councillor
The Linx, Bletchley

Smokers need to think

SIR - I am hugely impressed by the campaign to keep all of the cigarette butts off of our streets (Town asked to outlaw ciggies, MK NEWS, June 29).

I am a smoker (evil, I know) but I simply hate walking through the rubbish and debris left behind by inconsiderate smokers!

Children, wildlife, non-smokers, and clean considerate smokers (like me) should not have to negotiate their way through this disgusting mess just because smokers are too lazy to use an ashtray or bin.

Apart from the obvious air pollution, citizens should not have to tolerate this detritus when they did not contribute to this mess.

I smoke, but even I hate to walk past/through discarded cigarette butts. Save the innocents from this disgusting degradation please!

Wilma Sloan

Ban will 'ruin' this town

SIR - I have followed the story about the proposed smoking ban in amazement .

Let me state from the start that I am a non-smoker and have no intention of being a smoker, but I fully sympathise with smokers when people like this come out of the woodwork to 'Bloomberg' the very people they have been elected to serve as town councillor.

I have found that since the ban, many non-smokers have stopped going to the pubs simply because their smoking friends don't go any more and to be honest, I am one of them.

Our local pub was a hive of activity four years ago – now it is a mausoleum, a place that has lost all its charisma, all its personality.

The only thing this law has proved is just how valuable smokers are to public houses so if this councillor gets his way and bans smoking throughout Stony Stratford, the town will lose more than just the Working Men's Club and the Fox and Hounds.

Banning smoking throughout will damage the day-to-day business in Stony Stratford – its social life will die.

I sincerely hope that the good people of Stony Stratford bombard the council meeting with objections, for this will be the ruination of the good town of Stony Stratford.

Phil Johnson

Please let the lights be

SIR - I see that in the past weeks Milton Keynes Council has started to switch off street lights across our city.

I find it unacceptable that our council has started to plunge our streets and grid roads into darkness as it tries to cut bills.

I'm at a total loss to understand the enthusiasm behind such a dangerous measure for the relevantly small amount of money that it will save in real terms.

This crazy cost-cutting measure will put lives at risk on our roads and will increase collisions.

I personally don't feel confident that the savings are being balanced against the impact on road safety and local crime.

This situation will get even worse when it starts getting dark at 3.30pm and our children are coming home from school and crossing these roads.

If Milton Keynes Council is so serious about looking to save money it could start with making the several sets of unnecessary traffic lights that we have at many of the city roundabouts that are switched on 24/7 to peak time only operation.

I now hope that Milton Keynes Council will reverse this dangerous cost cutting measure immediately and switch back on all the street lights before someone is seriously injured, or killed, on our roads.

Parking plan benefits

SIR - Your correspondent Frederick Toates is missing the point, when he suggests that my proposed changes mean motorists are being subsidised to park in CMK (MK NEWS, June 29).

Actually, the effect will be exactly the opposite. I am proposing that some 600 spaces revert from premium 'red' rates (where they sit empty), to standard 'purple' rates, where they will be used more, benefiting both shops and shoppers, but more importantly, giving the council an increased amount of money to spend on public transport and such-like services.

If this rapid change has the intended effect of boosting council revenue, reducing displacement parking in nearby residential areas, and increasing business within CMK, I will of course be looking to make further changes. I agree with Mr Ferguson (MK NEWS, June 29) that there is more to be done!

Quartet on trial for schoolboy murder

BY JONATHAN REILLY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A SCHOOLBOY died after he was stabbed with the shaft of a broken golf club in a case of mistaken identity, a court has been told.

Four men are standing trial accused of murdering 16-year-old Adil Basharat, from Greenleys, after he was attacked outside Kingsbrook School in Deanshanger on Friday, November 19. He died two days later from his injuries.

At Northampton Crown Court yesterday, prosecutor Benjamin Aina QC said: "A group of schoolchildren was approached by four of the defendants, Adam Moore, Jake Batten, Daniel Anderson, and Freddy Wilson.

"The four men attacked three of the schoolchildren with weapons, which included a golf club, walking crutches, a screw driver, and a metal bar.

"During the attack the golf club handle broke and it was thrust into the pelvis of one of the school children, Adil Basharat."

The court was told how the attack was orchestrated by a fifth man, Billy Billingham, who was not involved in the attack itself but wanted revenge after being robbed of some drugs.

Mr Aina added: "Adam Moore was speaking to Billy Billingham on the phone as he approached the group and he called out 'Adil' and then made some reference to having caused trouble for one of his friends. Following that short conversation, they attacked.

"Sadly this was a case of mistaken identity. The attack on the schoolboy was a complete mistake, he was the wrong victim."

Freddy Wilson, 20, Jake Batten, 22, both from Deanshanger, Adam Moore, 20, from Cosgrove, and Daniel Anderson, 20, from Stony Stratford, all deny murder and violent disorder.

Adam Moore and Billy Billingham, 19, from Bradville, pleaded not guilty to conspiracy to commit GBH.

The trial is expected to last four weeks.

Police seek information on man who exposed himself to teenager

A MAN exposed himself to a 15-year-old girl in Heelands on Friday, July 8.

The girl was walking along Langcliffe Drive when she noticed a man on the opposite side of the road.

He unzipped his shorts, held them up with his right hand so they didn't fall down and touched himself inappropriately.

The teenager continued walking for another ten metres, and when she looked again she noticed the offender had kept pace with her and was still touching himself. She rang 999 and he ran off.

The offender was white, around 5ft 8in, of muscular build, with a rounded face.

He was wearing army-style camouflage three-quarter-length shorts, a black fleece and a black or grey baseball cap.

If you have any information, call PC Ryan Pavey on 0845 8 505 505. If you do not want to speak to the police, call the Crimestoppers charity anonymously on 0800 555 111.

You can also give information to the police in person by visiting any police station.

Road surface repairs set to start

MORE than 90,000 square metres of road will be resurfaced at the beginning of next month.

The work is due to start the week of Monday, August 8, and depending on weather conditions should be completed within six days.

In total 91,259 square metres of road surface will be treated, including parts of Watling Street and Standing Way.

Motorists are being asked to slow down and take notice of the advisory speed limit signs that will be displayed, to allow chippings to bind properly with a spray-on binder.

Cllr John Bint, responsible for highways and transport, said: "We realise this work may cause some inconvenience to some people but it does need to be done and will ultimately improve the long-term surface of the roads in question, which will also help drivers."

MP calls for crackdown on the scourge of khat

Calling for action: Mark Lancaster with the drug khat

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A CITY MP called for a review on the use of a legal drug that is a 'scourge on vulnerable communities' in Parliament yesterday.

Khat, a plant grown in Africa and the Middle East which is chewed among the Somali, Ethiopian and Yemeni communities, is banned in the USA, Canada and 16 European countries.

The main component in the drug, cathinone, is a class C drug in the UK, yet khat itself remains legal. The effect on a user is a highly-addictive feeling of euphoria similar to that gained from other drugs such as amphetamines.

Mark Lancaster, MP for Milton Keynes North, wants better monitoring and more education on khat and raised the debate in Parliament yesterday after representatives of the Somalian community in his constituency approached him complaining about its effects on society.

They have been complaining that, as khat users are mainly men who chew it at night in large groups, it leads to unsociable hours and anti-social behaviour. They also argue the 'come down' means men can sleep all day, leading to unemployment, deprivation, and lack of integration.

He said: "The main component of khat is banned, and yet khat itself is legal – you can even pick up a bunch just five minutes from my Milton Keynes office in broad daylight.

"It is the scourge of vulnerable communities in the city and across the country, but the plight of khat addicts is not widely publicised.

"In 1996 Parliament was told the Government was monitoring the issue – in 2011 we are still monitoring it. Now is the time to act, before khat blights even more lives."

■ Mr Lancaster joined firefighters on Friday to launch a safety campaign following a spate of fires in parks and open spaces caused by careless use of barbecues.

On Thursday, two disposable barbecues burnt through the wooden floor of the bandstand at Willen Lake. It is now taped off awaiting repair.

Recycling plan to be put on display

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

A NEW waste processing facility will be built in Bletchley, if plans are given the green light.

The Waste Recycling Group (WRG) hopes to recover recyclable material which would have otherwise been destined for landfill.

About 800,000 tonnes of non-hazardous household and commercial waste is currently buried at Bletchley's landfill site and a proportion of this waste could be recycled.

If the project is approved the new facility will be built within the existing reception compound at the site and 200,000 tonnes of waste per year could be pumped through.

Paul Dumpleton, WRG regional business manager, said: "By installing this facility we can recover a significant proportion of valuable recyclable materials and send them on for reprocessing into new items, which is much more sustainable than landfill and is good news for the environment."

However, West Bletchley councillor Tony Mabbott said he had some concerns.

The Green Party member said he had no problems with supporting recycling, but that the plans required thorough checking.

He said: "Will this mean an additional 200,000 tonnes of waste a year going to the landfill site, and if so how would it get there?

"Residents have already suffered for years from the noise and nuisance caused by the landfill site. They would be unwilling to put up with more noise, traffic and misery."

The public will be able to view the plans at the site on Tuesday, between noon and 8pm, with a planning application expected to be submitted to Milton Keynes Council in September.

Plan: The landfill site in Bletchley where a new waste processing facility could be built Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Fears raised over hike in rent for businesses

BY ADAM GRINSELL
AND DAN PALMER
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A POST office manager is predicting tough times after being asked to find an extra £3,000 in rent.

Narendra Shah, 61, is in charge of the post office in Melrose Avenue, Bletchley, and has been there for 29 years.

He said that Milton Keynes Council has increased his rent from £5,000 per year to £8,000 following the last increase five years ago.

He said the hike could not have come at a worse time as he is also welcoming fewer customers through the doors.

"Post offices are struggling to survive at the moment. We've been in a recession and the rent has gone up when trade has gone down," he added.

"I don't want to close as I don't want to take away the service from the community, but I could earn more money elsewhere."

Other businesses in the area are facing a similar increase of around 40-60 per cent and are currently in negotiations with Milton Keynes Council, which decides the rent, to try to agree a suitable rise.

Ward councillor Liz Campbell believes the council should be more 'realistic' and at a full council meeting last Tuesday, asked Cllr Peter Geary, responsible for property, to discuss the increases with her, officers and tenants.

She said: "We are looking at lots of businesses closing down, we are looking at unemployment and units being left empty.

"If the council ends up with lots of empty shops, it will have zero rents.

"I want the council to have a realistic rent rise that's in line with inflation – businesses don't need a kick in the teeth."

A council spokesman said: "We are still in negotiations with Mr Shah's agent about his rent. We understand his agent is on holiday, so we have yet to settle on a final figure.

"We sympathise with anyone who is suffering in the current economic climate and the last thing we want to do is put barriers in the way of people making a living.

"Indeed the council and partners have been very actively involved in job creation and helping people to improve their skills, to give them a better chance of gaining employment or finding a better job through our economic development programme."

Concerned: Councillor Liz Campbell outside the post office in Melrose Avenue, Bletchley

People power wins after plan rejected

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

CAMPAIGNERS have hailed a victory for people power after plans to build 102 new homes were thrown out by councillors.

Storey Homes wanted to build the properties on land bordering Deethe Farm, in Cranfield Road, Woburn Sands.

But the proposal was met with widespread opposition from the public, who packed out the chambers of Milton Keynes Council on Thursday to hear the decision.

More than 300 letters of objection were sent in and the proposal was also opposed by MP Iain Stewart, Wavendon Parish Council and Woburn Sands Town Council.

Fears of traffic congestion, flooding and increased pressure on schools and health facilities were among the concerns raised, and planning officer Nicola Wheatcroft told members of the council's Development Control Committee that there were 11 reasons why the plan should be refused.

They included an over-concentration of new housing which would negatively impact the area's character and identity.

Victory: Protesters celebrate after a plan to build new homes in Woburn Sands is thrown out by councillors

The decision by councillors to give the proposal the red light was a unanimous one.

Councillor Andrew Morris said: "It's not often you get that many reasons for refusal. This isn't a fit application."

Campaigner Nick Luke, of Hillway, said he was 'over the moon' and put the victory down to democracy.

"Right from the start residents rejected this. Local citizens have delivered a killer punch," he added.

Mr Stewart, MP for Milton Keynes South, added: "Common sense has prevailed.

"Milton Keynes has enough housing in place without building further into the countryside."

Storey Homes had argued its application would meet the city's rural housing needs and said it would help make improvements in the area.

The firm now has the option to appeal.

Protesters light up to extinguish ban plans

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

AROUND 200 people turned up to protest against a town's proposed smoking ban on Saturday.

After MK NEWS exclusively revealed Councillor Paul Bartlett's proposal to ban smoking in the streets of Stony Stratford last month, a large protest was organised at The Vaults Bar on the town's High Street.

Speakers including UKIP leader Nigel Farage, who previously visited the town in a smoking jacket, and MEP for the East Midlands Roger Helmer turned up to show their support, as people lit up their cigarettes, cigars and pipes in the street.

Speaking at the protest, Bill Etheridge, from pressure group The Freedom Association, said: "I thought of what would happen if Winston Churchill walked down the street in Stony Stratford – would Cllr Bartlett give him a fine for smoking his cigar?"

Mr Farage also thinks a proposed ban would be 'disastrous'.

He said: "The vast majority of people are against this, it's just going too far. Why not ban doughnuts and fish and chips because they are bad for you?

"It will have a disastrous affect for the businesses in Stony Stratford."

These are all points Cllr Bartlett refutes.

He said: "We are sending the message to all those non-smokers that they should come to Stony Stratford because it's clean and smoke free, so I don't think it will badly affect trade."

Cllr Bartlett has postponed his motion on the ban and so Stony Stratford Town Council will now discuss the issue on September 20, not last night as planned.

Butt out! People who are against the smoking ban in Stony Stratford took part in a protest at the weekend

Standing to attention: The Queen inspects cadets at Bletchley Park

HER Majesty The Queen visited Bletchley Park on Friday to dedicate a new memorial to the veterans who served there during the Second World War.

Accompanied by Prince Philip, she took a tour of The National Museum of Computing and the famous Block B, before unveiling the memorial with a rare speech in which she gave her 'heartfelt thanks on behalf of an eternally grateful nation'.

The memorial, which was exclusively revealed by MK NEWS in April, is an eight-foot-high statue comprising two large stone blocks interlocked at the top.

One displays the legend 'We also served' which was on the badges of the codebreakers, and on the other is a list of some of the 300-plus outstations which worked across the country alongside the Bletchley Park hub.

Hundreds of schoolchildren, from White Spire School and Holne Chase in Bletchley and Cedars Primary School in Newport Pagnell, turned out to

Two of these included Sheila and Oliver Lawn, who met when they worked at the park but neither could talk about the work they were doing until 40 years later when the Official Secrets Act allowed.

Before she left, nine-year-old Sadie Milton, from Shenley Brook End, handed The Queen a bouquet of flowers.

Sadie said: "It was really exciting and I was really nervous.

"The Queen said 'thank you for the flowers', and said they were very nice. I feel really pleased and proud."

Summer means more recycling

Deliveries of new yellow collection bags for used batteries began this week – when you receive yours, you can start collecting used batteries for recycling. Simply seal the bag and put it out on top of your green food and garden waste bin for collection – we'll leave a replacement bag tucked under the lid.

Don't worry if you don't receive your yellow bag just yet – it will take our waste operatives from Serco at least ten weeks to deliver these, together with the annual supply of pink and black sacks, to every home.

You can find out when deliveries are expected to come to your area by looking at the delivery schedule on our website www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/recycling.

If you are keen to start recycling batteries before your yellow bag arrives, you can always take them to any retailer which sells batteries, including electrical retailers and supermarkets.

Although the weather hasn't been brilliant, summer is here and for many of us that means barbecues. All those burgers, sausages and pieces of meat tend to be packaged in plastic or foil trays – don't forget you can now recycle these. Just remove the film lid and give them a quick rinse before putting them in the pink sack. Similarly make sure the bones from the chicken legs and all food leftovers go in your silver kitchen caddy or green food and garden waste bin.

To keep your kitchen caddy clean and odour free, we recommend lining it with newspaper – this stops the food sticking and helps to absorb any excess liquids.

If you prefer you could purchase compostable paper liners instead of using newspaper – for a list of local suppliers see our website.

We would also advise rinsing your bin and caddy occasionally with warm water and detergent - these basic housekeeping measures should ensure that your bin and caddy do not smell in the warmer weather.

All the rain recently has been good for the garden as the grass just keeps on growing – please put all your mown grass and garden waste in your green food and garden waste bin.

For further information on all issues relating to our recycling service, visit our website:

www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/recycling, email: recycling@milton-keynes.gov.uk or call the Environmental Services Contact Centre on 01908 25 25 70.

Now you can recycle worn textiles and shoes!

New additions to the weekly pink sack recycling scheme

www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/recycling

Milton Keynes Council is now able to accept worn clothing, textiles and shoes in the weekly pink sack recycling collections. Please send any re-usable items to a reputable charity but items which cannot be re-used can now go in your pink sack.

For further information, see our website or call the Environmental Services Contact Centre on 01908 252570.

Brothers jailed for killing mum's lover

BY ADAM GRINSELL

TWO 'selfish' brothers who were 'trying to control the life' of their mother have been jailed for manslaughter.

Sandeep Lotey, 24, and his brother Sarenjeet Lotey, 22, both from Cranbourne Avenue in Shenley Brook End, were sentenced at Wolverhampton Crown Court on Wednesday following the death of accountant Vijay Thaper at his home in Bloxwich, West Midlands.

They attacked Mr Thaper, 61, just yards from his home on January 13, 2010, after he started a relationship with their mother.

He suffered injuries to both his legs and weeks later became unwell and was admitted to hospital where he died on March 8, 2010.

A forensic post mortem was carried out which showed he died from a pulmonary thrombosis brought on by the injuries he suffered in January.

A murder inquiry was launched and the brothers, along with another man, were charged with murder on August 17, 2010, before they pleaded guilty to manslaughter on June 10 this year.

Sandeep Lotey was sentenced to six years and nine months, while Sarenjeet Lotey was sentenced to five years and nine months.

The third man, Pritpal Singh Panesar, 21, from Newcombe Road, Handsworth, was also sentenced to five years and nine months.

DI Gary Plant, from West Midlands Police CID, said: "This was a tragic incident whereby Mr Thaper lost his life through the overprotective and selfish actions of siblings trying to control the life and happiness of their mother.

"Vijay had done nothing more than enter into a loving relationship with a woman, which her children and other family members could not accept.

"Our thoughts are with Vijay's family during this difficult time, as it must be remembered they have lost a loved one and have to live with the consequences of this terrible crime for the rest of their lives."

Golf course homes decision deferred

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

Making a stand: Protesters at Windmill Hill Golf Course

MORE than 400 residents who have signed a petition against plans to build 89 new homes at a golf course are being forced to wait for a decision.

Campaigners have fought against the proposal for Windmill Hill Golf Course in Bletchley and were due to hear a verdict on Thursday.

Dozens made their presence felt at Milton Keynes Council but the matter was immediately deferred by the Development Control Committee.

A stumbling block arose as the Government announced a new affordable housing programme on the day of the meeting, so councillors opted for a delay to discuss the implications for Milton Keynes.

Among the changes is a new method of funding for affordable housing and councillors unanimously agreed the council's own guidelines might no longer be compatible with the Government's.

Twenty-seven of the properties planned for the golf course would be affordable homes.

Councillors have requested further information but have not yet set a new date for a decision.

West Bletchley Parish Council has objected to the plans, saying they will cause congestion problems and a loss of open space.

Councillor Elaine Wales, who helped distribute the petition, said she understood the decision but admitted it was 'frustrating'.

"We will be keeping up the pressure and making sure everyone still knows about it," she added.

The applicant, course owner Golf Course Management Ltd, also wants to build a new smaller, more financially viable clubhouse.

It is hoping to use money from a housing developer to address financial problems, with the club currently operating at a loss.

Council to revisit lights switch-off

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

Looking at possibilities: A warning sign and Councillor John Bint

THE controversial decision to turn off the 6,000 grid road lights across the city will be reviewed.

At a full meeting of Milton Keynes Council last Tuesday it was agreed officers will undertake the assessment over the next couple of months.

As part of the budget cuts in February, councillors voted to switch off all 'non-essential' grid road lighting in an effort to save almost £400,000.

But since then the decision has come under fire due to fears over drivers' safety.

So far about 2,700 lights have been switched off.

Following the meeting, Councillor John Bint, who is responsible for transport and highways in the city, said: "We do take safety very seriously.

"Because there hadn't been an assessment to turn off all 6,000 lights we are not going to carry on until we have carried out an assessment.

"We are going to assess ordinary grid lights, grid lights by junctions, bus stops and roundabouts, as well as central Milton Keynes' car parks, with a view to advising what are the safest lights to turn off.

"There is a capital budget which can be used for repairing street lights and it can also be used for low wattage light bulbs or time-activated dimmers and things like that.

"There are possibilities.

"But clearly the budget was set by our predecessors and we have to save a certain amount of money.

"We hope to get the assessment done soon because something really needs to be in place before autumn sets in and we have darker evenings."

School chosen for top class training

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A CITY school is one of only 100 in the country to be selected for an important new role aimed at raising standards.

Denbigh School has been granted teaching school status, which will allow it to lead the training and professional development of staff.

It was selected by the National College for School Leadership, which had about 1,200 expressions of interest in the first recruitment round.

Staff from the school will now be invited to the National College's Learning and Conference Centre in Nottingham for a formal induction in September.

The milestone marks a shift towards school-centred training and development.

Delighted: Denbigh School headteacher Sarah Parker

Teaching schools will be responsible for leading a group of schools, working with other partners including at least one university, to deliver high quality support for teachers and leaders at all stages in their career.

Headteacher Sarah Parker said: "I am delighted that Denbigh has been selected to become a Teaching School, in what was a highly competitive process for outstanding schools.

"This is recognition for our excellent work in the field of teaching and learning, staff development and support for new entrants to the profession. It is exciting to be at the forefront of this groundbreaking major initiative."

Steve Munby, chief executive of the National College, said: "To take on this role, teaching schools like Denbigh School need to be among the best in the country - outstanding in their own performance and have a track record of raising standards through school-to-school support.

"Over time teaching schools will harness the finest teaching talent in the profession to drive school improvement and bring real benefits to pupils."

Paw-fect way to master a degree

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A STUDENT graduated with a masters degree in social work on Friday – after doing the last year of her studies with her guide dog.

Louise Redsull, 26, who worked as a volunteer in Nepal and spent a year in Sydney as an undergraduate before going to the University of York, does not let the fact she is registered blind stand in her way.

In between studying and volunteering with organisations like the Child and Mental Health Services in York, Louise, from Lavendon, also found time to qualify to take out a guide dog on her own, completing the final year of her course with golden retriever Billie at her side.

She said: "Having a guide dog is a big responsibility and I only started to think about it at the beginning of last year.

"Last summer I had an assessment and a match was found really quickly – you are matched to a guide dog in terms of personality and lifestyle and I think both Billie and I have big personalities so we get along well."

Louise graduated from the University of Bath in 2007 with a first class BSc in psychology and last week returned to York following a month's backpacking trip to Thailand to receive her masters.

She has been visually impaired since birth, and added: "I have computer software fitted that reads sections of textbooks out loud and I like to take my own notes so don't need a lot of help in those respects.

"The university's disability services also helped me with things like contacting publishers for electronic versions of textbooks, getting books from the library and scanning in sections of textbooks."

Alliance of MK citizens aims to make life better

LAST month new pressure group Citizens:mk protested outside three city Tesco stores to lobby for the introduction of the Living Wage. Here, MK NEWS takes a closer look at what the group is hoping to achieve

Fighting for better: Citizens:mk protesters outside Tesco's Kingston store in June, camapigning for the Living Wage CITIZENS:MK is a developing alliance of community groups churches, mosques, schools, unions and community associations that wants to work together for a better Milton Keynes.

Using the methods of community organising, where the different groups are brought together to identify common targets, its goal is to build a 'civil society alliance' that will work with other sectors of society, such as the council, for the common good of the city. It hopes to meet that goal by training people of all ages, faiths and backgrounds to take action together for change.

Citizens:mk is part of the national Citizens:UK campaign to introduce the Living Wage, an increase from the minimum wage of £5.93 an hour to £7.20.

But the group is also now beginning to develop its own local campaign to target employers who have a base in the city to ensure they pay their staff a living wage, as well as any contract staff from other companies such as cleaners or security staff.

It is currently deciding which employers to target and in the meantime it has set up a dedicated e-mail address - livingwage@citizensmk.org.uk. It hopes to encourage those who work for a city employer, and who struggle to survive because of their low pay, to contact the group as it believes it may be able to work with them to improve their situation.

If you are a community group and wish to join Citizens:mk, contact organiser Mohamed Suleman on 07772 254406, or mohamed.suleman@citizensmk.org.uk.

Fundraisers put on their running shoes for charity

A RECORD number of runners took part in the NSPCC Half Marathon on Sunday.

The 2011 event, supported by MK NEWS, was another success with 1,794 runners entering the race, which the NSPCC hopes will help it smash its target of raising £50,000 for its ChildLine school service.

The overall male winner was Paul Martelletti of Victoria Park Harriers and Tower Hamlets AC, with a time of 1:06:56 – seven seconds faster than his winning time last year.

The female winner, Jane Ovington of Marshalls Milton Keynes AC, improved on her second place last year with a time of 1:23:14.

Neither course record, of 1:05:20 for the men and 1:11:33 for the women, was beaten.

The Team Challenge, jointly sponsored by Woodfines Solicitors and Baker Tilly, was won by the event's main sponsor Dawsongroup.

Sally Phipps, community fundraising manager for Milton Keynes NSPCC, said: "It was a great day and despite the full range of weather conditions that everyone experienced during the race, runners returned happy."

Rare chance to see medieval treasure

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

HISTORY and archaeology fans will have the chance this Sunday to examine a medieval stained glass window unearthed at Bradwell Abbey.

In 1982 archaeologists and volunteers discovered an entire stained glass window, dating from the 14th century, which had been buried for hundreds of years.

Normally the fragile stained glass is kept in storage by Buckinghamshire County Museum, so this will be an extremely rare chance to see it back at Bradwell Abbey, where it once decorated the church of a Benedictine monastery.

Ros Tyrrell, formerly of MK's Archaeology Unit, will give a talk about the ancient window and how it was unearthed.

Along with many others, the monastery at Bradwell was demolished in the 1530s after Henry VIII ordered the dissolution of monasteries.

Recalling the discovery, Ms Tyrrell said: "It looked as if someone had taken the window out of the church and thrown it on the ground, and there it had lain for nearly 500 years. The lead was folded and crumpled but still holding its decorated medieval glass.

What a find: Local archaeologists and volunteers discovered the stained glass window at Bradwell Abbey

"We knew at once it was a very special discovery.

"We were excited, but also alarmed because we knew that unless we handled it with a huge amount of care, this wonderful glass could turn into dust before our eyes."

After the talk a short guided walk will include a visit to the chapel of St Mary of Bradwell.

The event is free but donations are welcome.

Art tracked down across the world

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

ORIGINAL artwork based on and created for an award-winning development is being bought by collectors all over the world.

Artist Robert Rusin, 35, who lives in Milton Keynes, was commissioned to create a series of images to celebrate the Wolverton Park site by developers Places for People.

And one picture in particular of the Royal Train Shed has been selling online to art lovers from as far afield as California, Germany, and Sydney.

His pictures, which have the feel of classic railway posters of the 1920s and 1930s, are sketched by hand until he is happy with them before he scans them into his computer and adds the colour digitally.

Mr Rusin, who is originally from Poland, said: "I took about 300 photographs of the marvellous, historic buildings around Wolverton Park to give me ideas and I knew straight away because of the glorious railway heritage of the place and that so many of the people living there would commute to Birmingham and London that railways ought to be central to my work. I really did not have to go any further than to look around here for my inspiration."

Places for People sales director Elliott Stiling asked him to come up with something that could be used to evoke the history of Wolverton Park and explain how it is today.

He said: "We were delighted by his designs but we never imagined they would end up taking the story of the rebirth of Wolverton Park all over the world."

SIMON DARNELL

LAST FRIDAY NIGHT (T.G.I.F.)

Katy Perry

I'M TEETOTAL, but this song is actually tempting me to take up drinking.

There's a logical reason for that, so let me explain why before you start writing indignant 'drinking is evil' letters; the lyrics to this bland poppy blancmange describe the aftermath of a highly enjoyable night of partying and what might have happened during it (the narrator can't actually recall it).

The tune itself is dull and inconsequential, not to mention totally unsuited for the subject matter; the melody's end-of-term disco stuff, but the lyrical content is undoubtedly more suited for grown-ups.

Heck of a contrast there, I'm sure you'll agree.

On top of that, guess who turns up to do a saxophone solo? Kenny G! Why's he here? Don't ask me, I didn't invite him.

In fairness though, it's come to something when Kenny G's services are required to bring a bit of gravitas to the proceedings.

So, back to my future drinking habits.

If this song is right and drinking can help you forget bad things, then a few pints of something alcoholic ought to ensure that I wake up tomorrow morning with no memory of this song's existence.

Sounds like a great plan to me, but you're reading this review which proves that although a hangover is temporary, documentary evidence lasts forever.

In this case, drinking will solve nothing.

Oh well, might as well switch the kettle on I suppose.

SECRET OF MY LIFE

East 17

YOU'LL no doubt be pleased to know that in the time it took you to go from the end of the last review to the start of this, I've made myself a very nice cup of tea.

Now, if I was still listening to Katy Perry's song chances are I'd probably have pink wafers with my brew, because it's a pink wafers sort of song.

Don't get me wrong, pink wafers are alright, but just as the song's a mismatch, so they're not what I'd normally have with a cuppa.

This, on the other hand, is definitely a digestive song.

A solid, safe choice, but without any of the excitement that, say, an Oreo or Jammie Dodger offers.

Suits the song down to the ground actually; it's relaxed, easy-going, but it could walk through a crowd totally unnoticed.

However, it does have the distinctive East 17 sound, so if you were a fan back in the 20th century I suppose you might like this.

THE STABLES 01908 280800

THE SPOOKY MEN'S CHORALE

Tomorrow, 8pm

WAVE goodbye to choirs as you know them.

This one is a macho juggernaut - zany, black-clad and show-stoppingly good - sounding as sacred as a high church choir one minute and wickedly off the wall the next.

Compellingly comic they may be, but they're also a class act with pitch-perfect harmonies, savvy lyrics and imaginations that run riot across repertoire ranging from Georgian-style chants to a capella ballads, spiky political jabs, Cole Porter's Every Time We say Goodbye, a hilarious spoof of Queen's Flash and the funniest version of Abba's Dancing Queen you'll ever hear.

For an extra £12 per person you can sample some non-scary bush tucker (vegetarian options available) served in CafÈ in2. Go to www.stables.org for menu details. Book in advance through the box office to reserve your table. Tickets £17.

LIVE/WIRE

Saturday, 8pm

AS ANY AC/DC fan will tell you, there is only one AC/DC.

And as any Live/Wire fan will tell you, there is only one complete AC/DC show - and that is Live/Wire.

It's a unique tribute to rock's greatest band, complete with cannons, a wall of Marshalls and over two hours of high voltage rock 'n' roll.

Both the Bon Scott and Brian Johnson eras are included with two very different singers packing classics like Whole Lotta Rosie, Highway To Hell, Thunderstruck and Back In Black into a two-hour-plus extravaganza, throwing in a few surprises for fans to savour.

Tickets £16.50.

The Spooky Men's Chorale, top, and Live/Wire, bottom, will be performing at The Stables

CRAUFURD ARMS

STATE OF GRACE - PLUS SUPPORTS

Saturday, doors 7.30pm

NEW Bucks-based heavy rockers with a modern hardcore edge featuring former members of Rise Inside, Desperate Cycle and Vindiction.

The collective mindset and aim of this new project was to unite and channel the individual member's wealth of experience, ability and belief into thought provoking, highly emotive songs that are not just packed with energetic powerful riffs, huge vocals and choruses but also hold meaning and passion.

After months of relentless writing and rehearsing the band now look to release an EP later on this summer and start gigging all over the UK.

Influences include Thrice, At The Drive In, Gallows, Sharks, Nirvana, Cancer Bats, Every Time I Die, Defeater, Ghost Of A Thousand and Alexisonfire.

Three bands will provide support, including Scrapbook Heroes, a popular five-piece rock/pop band from the city.

They have new members, new tunes and a new recording on the way and are using the gig to showcase their fresh line-up.

Also on the bill are Voices From The Fuselage, who offer a very melodic take on progressive metal, with experimentation in time signatures and melodramatic key changes and chord sequences.

The band are not just players of music, but students of it, as they find it important to study the philosophy of their major, in order to understand it furthermore and to prevail with music in the future.

Oceans and Empires, a five-piece teenage band from Milton Keynes, also play and describe themselves as a 'bunch of lads having fun playing music'.

If you dig modern creamo, hardcore metal and enjoy a bit of a mosh, then make sure you arrive early to check them out.

Tickets £5, all ages welcome.

MK GALLERY

POLISH born Kamil Szkopik's interest in the visual arts began early in life, when at the tender age of ten he spent many hours drawing portraits.

He has since become a successful photographic contributor to art and fashion magazines in Europe, USA and South America and is currently studying for an MA in Fashion Photography at the London College of Fashion.

A resident of Milton Keynes, last summer Kamil was one of eight talented finalists in the MK Community Foundation's Arts Bursary Award.

All eight are exhibiting collectively at MK Gallery's New Art MK exhibition this summer until September 18, where Kamil is showing five of his unique fashion portrait photographs, which play with conventions of identity, sexuality and society.

He said: "Throughout the process of portraying people it occurred to me that identity stands for the surface, just like sexuality, attire or preferences."

He selects his models by challenging himself to approach complete strangers in the street, whose looks he believes have the potential to help him realise his photographic compositions.

Very much in charge of the construction of 'meaning' for the sitter, Kamil works intensively for many hours, paying great attention to the staging and details of hair, clothing, jewellery and props.

He admits that he is often amazed at the patience and trust displayed by his models. Not for him the quick 'snap' or instant reportage technique.

His labours may result in only two or three photographs - definitely a case of quality not quantity. In producing his highly staged works, he employs double exposure, which gives the final images a somewhat timeless, dreamy quality.

MK Gallery's Friday Night Films have been selected by the New Art MK exhibitors. Kamil's choices can be seen this week and next: In America (2003) on Friday, and The White Ribbon (2009) on July 29. Visit www.mkgallery.org for full details.

The gallery is running a special offer for all Friday Night Film ticket holders - Emma Wilde's Limited Edition prints are £100 for the pair instead of £75 each.

And finally, don't forget MK Gallery's free Family Evening this Friday from 5-7.30pm.

STANTONBURY THEATRE

ANNIE

Thursday to Saturday, 7.30pm, Saturday matinee 2.30pm

THIS is a heart-warming tale of Annie and her adventures. Deserted in an orphanage run by the wicked Miss Hannigan, Annie escapes to an easier life outside during the Great Depression where tomorrow is always brighter because of hope - and a certain stray dog, Sandy, who tags along for the fun. When she is returned to the orphanage she escapes again and her life is changed when she enters into the world of the millionaire Daddy Warbucks.

By Rare Productions, with music by Charles Strouse. Tickets £12, concessions £10, Rare members £6.

CORNERSTONE CHURCH

THE city's clarinet star Ben Westlake will be saying goodbye to Milton Keynes at a special farewell concert tonight.

Ben has won a prestigious place to study with the world renowned Ricardo Morales at his studio in Philadelphia, with a full scholarship for tuition fees.

However, he needs to be able to fund his accommodation, flights and food and the proceeds of the concert will go towards this.

Ben's virtuosic playing and beautiful sound have been entrancing audiences and won him more than 23,000 fans on YouTube.

The concert will feature a new repertoire, and Ben will be joined by renowned accompanist, Daniel King Smith, and his talented flautist brother, James.

Tickets for the concert, taking place at 7.45pm, are £8.50 on the door, or £2 for children.

GREAT LINFORD MANOR GROUNDS

A NEW exhibition showing various types of art from both established and new artists is now on display in Milton Keynes.

The People's Gallery aims to promote non-exclusive, independent art in order to create a more diverse and culturally rich community within the growing city.

It opened on Saturday and will run for two weeks, ending in a closing event on the weekend of the 29th which will double as a launch party for The People's Gallery website.

Throughout the rest of the year, and expanding into 2012, the website will focus on promoting and selling local arts.

The team setting up The People's Gallery, already established as part of the growing online poetry collective 'Poet Tree Alliance', are Ben Watson, Jake Cronin and Paul Howarth who, as young local artists and musicians, have high hopes for the future of independent art and cultural growth in Milton Keynes.

Ben said: "Anyone is welcome to put their stuff on the walls.

"We wont say no because we don't like it, we value it because it was done in the first place, and if we don't have room for it we will save it until we do.

"This is about breaking down the conventional idea about all the checks people have to go through to exhibit.

"There's also been a launch of an online gallery, www.poet-tree-alliance.co.uk, where we will take a picture of your work and upload it, so there will literally be no barriers to exhibiting."

Submissions will remain open throughout the two week period and any art is welcome. To submit your work for inclusion in the exhibition or a place on the soon-to-be launched website email: gallery@poet-tree-alliance.co.uk.

HEART FM COLUMN

HEART breakfast show presenters Stuart and Natalie wake you up each weekday morning and write to you each week in MK NEWS.

Friday, July 8, was a big night as we joined 20,000 others in the rain at stadiummk for an amazing gig with JLS and Olly Murs.

We managed to grab the boys just before they took to the stage and wanted to know how everything was going.

It turns out, the night before, there had been a bit of a party that had left Olly feeling a little delicate.

So we wanted to know what had gone on and Olly explained that he was feeling a little delicate and was looking forward to his bed later.

"I'm trying to recover after my first night out with JLS. It was a great night, although I did leave the dance floor early once Aston started as I dance a bit like a dad."

We wanted to know how he was juggling the tour with his new X Factor role: "Its been tough and I missed some of the auditions, but I've got the judges' house visits in my diary for sure."

We wanted to know more about Olly's big night out and wondered if JLS were guilty of leading him astray.

Aston admitted to having a word with Olly's tour manager to make sure that they all stayed the night as they normally leave as soon as Olly has performed.

Marvin set the record straight saying: "For the five weeks we've been on tour, every night Olly leaves before us to go to the next city, so last night we said 'look Olly this is our last chance to have a send off party'."

We could tell from the cheeky smiles they had a great time.

We're really excited about seeing the very final instalment of Harry Potter and The Deathly Hallows and were hoping to catch up with some of the cast this week.

Stuart and Natalie present Heart Breakfast Monday to Friday, 6am-10am, on Heart 103.3FM.

NEWPORT PAGNELL

PARKLIFE is now in its tenth successful year of showcasing quality new and exciting music and arts.

Each year the festival continues to develop and 2011 is no exception with even more stages spread across more venues.

The festival on Saturday will be split across three separate stages in Newport Pagnell: Ousebank Gardens, The Sunset Lounge Stage at The Cannon and The Zak Music Stage at The Swan Revived Hotel, all offering a wide array of entertainment throughout the day.

Interspersed within the music areas will be a Childbase childrens' area, NCT baby change, locally-sourced foods, community-run bar and tea tent, and exhibition spaces for local arts.

Parklife is a community festival aimed at showcasing local talent and promoting community spirit. It has been kindly supported by the venues, Milton Keynes Community Foundation and Eastwood Studios with help in kind from the likes of Yamaha, Marshalls, Star Digital and Simple Hire - and of course the volunteers that run it.

CASTLE GALLERIES

AS ONE of the world's most important and influential cultural icons of a generation, Bob Dylan's global influence permeates every layer of our modern culture.

Now his impact on the world of visual art will be affirmed as Castle Galleries in Acorn Walk, thecentre:mk, prepares to unveil The Drawn Blank Series 2011 to mark Dylan's 70th birthday.

The exclusive worldwide launch will see The Drawn Blank Series 2011 simultaneously unveiled at 9am on Saturday in Castle Galleries across the UK.

The eight new limited edition graphics, all of which are personally signed by Bob Dylan, feature previously unpublished imagery and newly revealed treatments from Dylan's paintbrush which look set to cement his place in the lofty halls of art history.

Taken from drawings Dylan created while on the road from 1989 to 1992, these expressive works capture the artist's chance encounters and uniquely combine the everyday with the extraordinary and the intimate, personal moments in Dylan's life.

COMPETITION

THE summer holidays are here and while the kids are pretty good at amusing themselves, at some point they'll be in desperate need of a day trip.

The problem is that an excursion to one of the big family attractions often comes at a price and the chances are you could do without an expensive day out at the moment.

Admiral MultiCar understands the need to save money this summer and has compiled a database of ideas for free days out, as well as children's games and a podcast to keep the kids entertained in the car, voiced by Nickelodeon's Laura Hamilton and including games like I Spy, Pick That Sound and Guess The Language, giving kids a step-by-step guide on how to play and encouraging them to interact with the Podcast and each other.

They have also put together lots of advice on travelling with your family, which can all be found at www.admiral.com/familyoutings.

Admiral MultiCar could also save you money on your insurance.

By combining your cars on a single insurance policy, you can get a MultiCar discount: the more cars you add the greater the discount.

But if you're still stuck for ideas MK NEWS has teamed up with Admiral MultiCar to help you enjoy a fantastic family summer day out.

We are offering two family tickets to one of 20 major UK attractions including Kew Gardens and Sea Life Centres, along with a family picnic basket.

To be in with a chance of winning, simply answer the following question:

Which of these games is available on the Podcast on the Admiral Family Outings website?

a) I Spy
b) Guess Who
c) Snakes and Ladders.

Send your entries, along with your name, address and contact details, to competitions@mk-news.co.uk, or MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, MK15 0DU.

Closing date for entries is Wednesday, July 27.

The winner will be selected and notified after the closing date. The editor's decision is final.

Children can learn all about the deep sea and fill in fact sheets along their journey in the huts to be in with the chance of winning one of six family days out to the London aquarium.
Daily activities will entertain the crowd with MK Dons Sport Community sessions on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4.30-6.30pm, Punch and Judy shows every Wednesday hourly from 11.30am until 3.30pm, and children's discos with Heart Radio on Friday from 6-8pm. For further information, visit thecentremk.com

The Green Room & Theatre MK

The Greene Room offers different entertainment each week!

There is an awful lot going on at The Greene Room this summer, so after a day out in the sun why not head down there, kick back, and enjoy what this classy venue has to offer?

Who knows what will happen at the Green Room

The Greene Room is an entertainment venue like no other which has exploded onto the night time scene in Milton Keynes in extraordinary fashion

You can step back to the glamorous tradition of cabaret and live entertainment, dancers, burlesque, music, comedy and much more are also on the menu at the swanky new venue located in the Theatre District. The Greene Room offers different entertainment each week. The highly choreographed performances promise to match that of any West End production and include the venue's very own hand-picked Resident Dollz. Sassy performances are high energy and fun; however, it is just part of The Greene Room experience.

Tom Chambers and Summer Strallen will strut their stuff in Top Hat.

A night at the theatre is one of life's little pleasures and there are some great shows on offer in Milton Keynes this summer.

A showstopping summer at the theatre

So head down to Milton Keynes Theatre for what is sure to be an enjoyable evening of entertainment. Between August 16 and 27 there is an extra special treat, with a world premiere taking place right here in the city.

Top Hat, the 1935 film starring dancing royalty Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, has been adapted for the stage and Milton Keynes audiences will get the very first look. The film is widely regarded as being Fred and Ginger's greatest Hollywood dance musical with the new version featuring Tom Chambers and Summer Strallen in the lead roles. Chambers, known for his role in Holby City, shot to fame by winning Strictly Come Dancing and Strallen, who has starred in Love Never Dies, The Boy Friend and Hollyoaks, is a triple Olivier Award nominee.

Tom plays Jerry Travers, a famous American tap dancer who arrives in London to appear in his first West End Show. While there he meets Dale Tremont (Strallen), the girl of his dreams. To win her heart, he sets off across Europe to wow her with his wonderful song and dance routines. Irving Berlin's celebrated score includes classics such as Cheek to Cheek, Let's Face the Music and Dance, Top Hat, and White Tie and Tails.

If dancing and musicals are not your thing, then how about laughing yourself silly to the comedic genius of Jimmy Carr?

Known for his dark humour, Carr has presented and appeared on a number of television shows and has undoubtedly positioned himself at the top of the country's comedy tree. Since the turn of the century, Carr has been a 'fun slinger' of international repute.

If you've got a sick sense of humour then maybe laughter is the best medicine, but it is not to be taken if you have a sensitive disposition or an over-active moral compass. Carr performs on August 30 and September 7.

Get fit for summer

Summer in the City

Fun in the sun
Get out and have fun and get fit at the same time

Summer's here and now is a great time to find a work-out routine that feels comfortable.

Get outside and get fit this summer

It's a good idea to list all the reasons why you want to shape up. Is it that you want to look good and feel comfortable when you're on the beach?
Do you want to have the energy to dance 'til dawn? Or is it that, when the five-a-side football season starts up again you want to show your mates that you've got the staying power to smash the opposition? If the ultimate goal is feeling fitter and looking better then you will be very pleased if the by-product is losing weight. But don't get hung up on the pounds and ounces - instead, look at your shape and ask yourself whether your clothes feel looser. Walking is a great way to keep your cardiovascular system in good health. Striding out for just 30 to 60 minutes a day can burn off as many as 400 calories an hour. Swimming, is good for you. It is an activity that exercises almost every muscle in our bodies - and, let's face it, it's fun!

MK BUSINESS

Internet connection speeds may be keeping firms away

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

SLOW broadband speeds in the city are driving businesses around the bend and could even be persuading firms not to come to Milton Keynes, according to a councillor.

A nationwide survey carried out by Ofcom has revealed that 30 per cent of the city has a connection slower than 2Mbits per second - the highest such percentage in England.

The matter was discussed at a full meeting of Milton Keynes Council last Tuesday and a motion put forward by Walton Park member Lee Barney was unanimously passed. Councillors were asked to agree that 'the council believes that the future competitiveness and prosperity of Milton Keynes is dependent on the availability of world class communications technology, not only for businesses, but also for residents and new models of public service provision.'

Cllr Barney said businesses were being put off Milton Keynes by slow speeds.

"It's a significant problem as it's holding back economic development in Milton Keynes," he added.

"I spoke to one person who said it was quicker for him to put a picture on a USB stick and drive to the other side of the city instead of sending an e-mail."

The council's decision-making cabinet has now been asked to do all it can to ensure superfast broadband is rolled out across the city, which includes investigating and reporting on the root cause of the patchy and slow broadband speeds.

The Milton Keynes and North Bucks Chamber of Commerce also admitted slow surfing was causing a headache.

A spokesman said: "It's a big problem, a serious issue.

"And it's not just broadband as 3G is also slow."

It's never too early to learn to be a spy!

WHY let the kids sit at home this summer when they could be saving the world?

Si5 Spymissions in Winter Hill has announced the opening of its new Junior Missions for six to eight-year-olds, in which they can enjoy action-packed adventures by becoming spies.

Each mission aims to save the world and involves cracking codes, dodging lasers, zip-wiring from a helicopter and finding secret bookcases.

Spymissions, one of the city's fastest growing attractions with hundreds of visitors every month, holds birthday parties, as well as team-building and schools events.

Even the MK Dons have tried one of the four existing missions.

Now the company has opened a new adventure designed exclusively for younger spies.

Managing director Bob Richardson said: "Spymissions goes from strength to strength and we have had amazing feedback from everyone who has tried it.

"It's a real challenge and mixes mental agility with a few more physical games.

"We have had so many requests from parents of younger children that we wanted to add a mission that six-year-olds could complete.

"It is great fun and we have tailored the activities especially for those junior spies."

MKNEWS BRIEFS

Construction contract

MILTON Keynes Council has reappointed construction and infrastructure company Morgan Sindall to carry out its major building works, which has an anticipated total spend of up to £100million.

The appointment has a three-year term, with a possible one year further extension, and the workload will involve new build and refurbishment schemes in education and general community buildings.

We are all in this together

THE recession has helped Britain rekindle its long-lost sense of community spirit, with more than a quarter of homeowners now closer to their neighbours than they were before the global financial crisis hit.

This is according to research conducted by housebuilder Taylor Wimpey, which revealed more than half of homeowners said the fear of redundancies and the rising cost of living meant those who barely knew each other before the recession now suddenly had something in common.

Firm in award success

RETAIL Merchant Services (RMS), based in Central Milton Keynes, scooped a prestigious European business award at the recent Elavon European Partners Conference for the merchant services industry.

Elavon's Best Independent Sales Organisation Award recognises the level of achievement sustained and revenue created in the past business year.

Employing more than 150 staff across the UK, and 50 in Milton Keynes, RMS continues to lower the fees associated with accepting credit and debit cards at the point of sale.

Bank takes on director

ROYAL Bank of Scotland (RBS) has appointed Catherine Morecroft as business development director for the East of England Corporate and Institutional Banking team, based in the city.

She will be responsible for engaging with businesses in the Milton Keynes area with turnover in excess of £25million to highlight how RBS can support them in achieving their business and strategic plans.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport intends to vary an existing Order on the M1 Motorway in Hertfordshire, Bedfordshire and the Borough of Milton Keynes to allow for major construction works enabling the implementation of hard shoulder running to be carried out in safety.

The Order to be varied is The M1 Motorway (Junction 9, Hertfordshire to Junction 14, Milton Keynes) (Temporary Restriction and Prohibition of Traffic) Order 2009 S.I. 2594.

The effect of the Order would be, from time to time during the works, to extend the working hours to allow for 24 hour closures of the northbound and southbound carriageways of the M1 between Junctions 9 and 14, including all entry and exit slip roads along this length.

The diversion routes which are in place during the night time closures would apply to the 24 hour closures and would be clearly signposted.

The Order would come into force on 8 August 2011 and continue until the works have been completed.

General Enquiries relating to this notice may be made in writing to Lynne Stinson at the Highways Agency, The Cube, 199 Wharfside Street, Birmingham B1 1RN or by telephoning 0121 678 8350.

THE A5 TRUNK ROAD (A421 REDMOOR INTERCHANGE MILTON KEYNES TO THE A505 THORN, BEDFORDSHIRE) (TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 2011

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport has made an Order on the A5 Trunk Road in Milton Keynes and Bedfordshire to provide a safe working environment for the workforce whilst carriageway repairs, road marking replacement and routine maintenance works are carried out along the A5 between Milton Keynes and Thorn.

The works are expected to take place in phases overnight for approximately 3 weeks (9pm - 6am weekdays only) starting on, or after, Monday 1 August 2011.

The effect of the Order will be to close the A5 -

1. northbound carriageway from its junction with Sheep Lane Roundabout near Potsgrove to its junction with the A4146 Kelly's Kitchen Roundabout, Little Brickhill, Milton Keynes, diverting traffic via the A505 at Chalk Hill to rejoin the A5 at A4146 Kelly's Kitchen Roundabout,
2. northbound carriageway from its junction with the A4146 Kelly's Kitchen Roundabout, Little Brickhill to the entry slip road at the A421 Redmoor Interchange, Milton Keynes, diverting traffic via Watling Street to rejoin the A5 at A421 Redmoor Interchange,
3. from its junction with Sheep Lane Roundabout near Potsgrove to its junction with the A505 Roundabout at Thorn, diverting southbound traffic via the A4146 at Kelly's Kitchen roundabout, the A505 to rejoin the A5 north of Chalk Hill and vice versa for northbound traffic,
4. northbound -
   - entry slip road at Little Brickhill, diverting traffic via Little Brickhill to then follow the main diversion route at 1. above,
   - entry and exit slip roads at A4146 Bletcham Way Interchange Milton Keynes, and
   - exit slip road at A421 Grafton Street, Redmoor Interchange Milton Keynes, and
5. lay-bys adjacent to the lengths of trunk road described above, for 24 hours daily for the duration of the works.

Access to properties fronting the A5 will be maintained at all times.

The Order will come into force on 25 July 2011 and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.

The carriageway, slip road and lay-by closures (which will not apply to works, emergency service or traffic officer vehicles) and diversion routes, will be clearly indicated by traffic signs throughout the works period.

General Enquiries relating to this notice may be made in writing to Keith Hutchinson at the Highways Agency Woodlands, Manton Lane, Bedford MK41 7LW or by telephoning 01234 796510.

ROWING
THREE crews from MK Rowing Club brought home the prestigious 'Quart' tankards at the last ever Bedford Quarts Regatta.
Scullers Mike Funge, Josh Vinden, Nelson Tanner and Tom Rivett beat off a strong Medway crew in a close final with less than a second between them at the finish line, and the ladies four of Charlene Mills, Jo Heywood, Lindy Gray and Paula Heywood, coxed by Benn Klewpatinond, won their final against a crew from St Neots.
The MK Juniors entered a record number of crews in a regatta this year and hard training paid off for John Smith and Ryan Engledow, who beat off strong competition from the London based Poplar, Blackwall and District Rowing Club to win their event in the doubles.

LOCAL CRICKET
WEATHER was the winner this weekend as torrential rain forced abandonments in much of the local cricket throughout the Four Counties, Northants, Cherwell and MK Sunday leagues.

ATHLETICS
THERE were gold medals for Milton Keynes athletes Mervyn Luckwell and Lucie Prosser at the England Athletics Championships in Bedford.
Luckwell won the javelin with a throw of 75.35m and Prosser won the F36 discuss with a throw of 15.76m.
Sprinter Craig Pickering picked up a silver medal in the 100m with a time of 10.17 seconds and Thomas Green also came second in the F35 club.

RUGBY UNION
Milton Keynes Rugby Club has been honoured by the appointment of its President, John Silk, to the presidency of Buckinghamshire Rugby Football Union.
John, of Woolrich Gardens, Stony Stratford, joined the club in 1973, when the name changed from Wolverton to Milton Keynes RUFC, and played for Milton Keynes in the inaugural game against a Jeff Butterfield International XV when the club moved to the then new ground at Greenleys in 1974.

GOLF
WOBURN Sands pro Ian Poulter had an Open Championship to forget but he couldn't be more happy for the eventual winner Darren Clarke.
Poulter, who is not a fan of the Royal St Georges course, missed the cut after a disappointing second round of 78.
But Poulter said that no winner would have been more worthy than Northern Irishman Clarke, who won his first major at the age of 42.

Nash aiming to topple old guard

TOURING car ace James Nash is itching to get back behind the wheel so he can continue to give the sport's stalwarts a run for their money.

The British Touring Car championship is currently in the middle of a six-week hiatus, with Newport Pagnell driver Nash fifth in the overall standings.

Forty-four-year-old Matt Neal currently leads the way and the defending champion is forty-three-year-old Jason Plato, but Nash, just 26, is hoping that their time will soon be up.

He said: "I think Neal and Plato have reached their peak and are at the top of their tree, so the only thing for them to do is fall out.

"I need to be there to pick up the pieces as one of the younger drivers."

Nash led this year's championship after the first two meetings at Brands Hatch and Donnington Park and out of the 15 races held so far on five circuits, has only failed to score points twice.

He got himself onto the podium after all three races at Donnington but has yet to experience the feeling of being on the top step.

This is something that Nash, racing for Triple 8 Race Engineering in his turbocharged Vauxhall, aims to put right.

Another goal he has set is winning the championship for independent drivers – currently he sits second in the standings behind Mat Jackson.

"I need to win a race this year, and the ultimate goal is winning the independents" he said.

"We've been competing against works teams such as Honda and Chevrolet, so in theory, as an independent, we shouldn't be able to stand up to them, but in fact we've been beating most."

The season is set to resume on August 7 with a meeting at Snetterton in Norfolk and Nash can't wait for the resumption.

With the top six a long way ahead of the rest of the pack, it is unlikely that the city driver will fare any worse than that come the end of the season.

He said: "The last two rounds have been quite difficult and the car has been lacking a bit of development.

"At the start of the season out of the box we were very quick, and we're still very strong now.

Track star: James Nash

"We've had a day's testing and we feel we have found some improvements and I'm really looking forward to the second half of the season. It'll be nice to just get it underway."

Nash first got into motorsport when he took up karting as a hobby, quickly progressing to the National Championships.

He finished second, suffering the heartbreak of losing the title on the last lap of the last race due to a chain snapping.

After this he started racing Formula Fords before moving onto the Seat Eurocup series.

In the future he envisions having a crack at the World Touring Car Championships or GT racing, with the iconic Le Mans 24-hour race something he admits he'd 'love to do'.

"World Touring Cars is obviously a goal," he said. "I'd like to say that I've been there and done it.

"We've been pushing it for next year, but it obviously depends on what other drives come up, we'll see what lands first.

"I'd like to be recognised as a touring car driver, so if I leave and manufacturers come back in, I can go back to touring cars. That's definitely the goal for this year.

"We've made a break with the top six, and I just need to keep maintaining that and push on."

BASKETBALL

Gill flattered to be ranked over NBA superstar Artest

STEFAN Gill is a proud man after signing up for another season at MK Lions.

The 27-year-old point guard is the first confirmed name in Mike New's squad and the Lions were so thrilled that they declared his signature to be more valuable than that of an NBA superstar.

LA Lakers small forward Ron Artest, who enjoys a staggering $33million contract in the States, has hinted that he would like to play in Britain as the NBA season is under threat due to a pay dispute.

But Lions owner Vince Macaulay, while admitting that contact had been made with Artest, dismissed a potential transfer as 'unlikely' and said he'd rather have Gill anyway.

That was music to the ears of the Lions' Mancunian star who is nicknamed The Matrix and has been a hit with Lions fans.

"It was flattering," Gill said. "I was blushing when I heard about it."

Gill is delighted to be the first player to sign on with the Lions, especially as he's an English talent.

Now, he is hoping to help propel the team to glory in what will be his second full season.

He said: "Usually it is the American players who sign up first so I'm very proud that it's me.

"The first goal this year is to get a play-off spot, and after that, let's go on and win it."

Gill has impressed with his speed and athletic ability, and he also prides himself on his defence.

He said the team would be working on closing out games this season and that having the permanent home of the MK Lions Arena for the entire campaign was a major boost.

Meanwhile, two young Lions, Harry Turner and Jordan Spencer, have reason to celebrate.

Both have been selected in the final 12 for England's U18 European Championship campaign, which will be held in Bulgaria.

Netminders the latest to sign on at Lightning

NETMINDERS Barry Hollyhead and Alex Mettam have signed on again at MK Lightning, and the club couldn't be happier to have them back.

Nick Poole's side finished last season with the second-lowest number of goals conceded in the entire English Premier League and the two men who provided the last line of defence are hoping to have similar success in keeping the opposition at bay when the new campaign swings into action.

Both players said that the club's ambition and team spirit were key factors in their decisions to return.

Hollyhead, 36, said the atmosphere encouraged members of the squad to stay in Milton Keynes even when greater financial incentives were on offer elsewhere.

He said: "Milton Keynes has been my home-from-home for seven of the last nine seasons.

"The team spirit here means a lot, we all work for each other and we're always in with a good chance of winning trophies - and we've proved that ever since the EPL was formed.

"It'll be great to work with Mettsey again this year; he's proved in the last two seasons how capable he is, and between us we give Lightning a mix of youth and experience."

Mettam, 23, added: "I've had two really enjoyable seasons here which makes it an easy decision to stay.

"The atmosphere within the team is great, which makes playing here a lot of fun and hopefully that shows in our performances.

"This year we want to get back to winning silverware for the supporters, and I'll be doing everything I can to make that happen."

Poole said that Lightning fans would again be witnessing the best netminding duo in the entire league.

"They've always been close to or at the top of the statistical charts and the players have 100 per cent confidence in both of them," he said.

"Barry's been a real rock for us over the years and always delivers in big games.

"It was a tough call for Barry on where to play this coming season but we're thrilled he chose to continue with the Lightning.

"Alex has been a revelation over the past two seasons, he's the best trainer we have on the team as he constantly pushes himself and his team mates to be the best.

"He'll work in partnership with Barry and we'll continue to give him more big games as we work towards him becoming first choice netminder."

FORMULA ONE

Home advantage will spur on champ Vettel

SEBASTIAN Vettel is targeting a return to winning ways at his home grand prix in Germany on Sunday.

The Red Bull star has a commanding 80 point lead at the halfway point of the season and he looks certain to claim the drivers' title for the second year in a row.

However, Vettel was forced to settle for second at last weekend's British Grand Prix at Silverstone after a pit stop error stopped him in his tracks when a remarkable seventh win in nine races looked inevitable.

Perfectionist Vettel said that himself, and the entire city-based team, would have to up their game if they are to taste success on his home track.

He said: "It was a lesson to learn and it is up to us now to refocus and make sure that we come back with stronger performance for the next couple of races.

"It is a very important time now for the championship."

Speculation continues over the future of Vettel's team-mate, Mark Webber, who was unhappy at Silverstone after being ordered not to try and overtake Vettel to claim second.

However, the Australian has hinted that he could stay on, stating that talks with Red Bull have been 'positive'.

Dons trialists await verdict

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

DONS boss Karl Robinson will decide whether to offer contracts to the club's trialists over the next couple of days.

The manager has stated that he would like to play the team he plans to start the season with in the friendly against Tottenham on Tuesday, so time is ticking away in his quest to add new recruits.

Striker Dean Bowditch and midfielder Darren Potter are the only new arrivals so far, but Robinson still has a shopping list which includes a right-back, a left winger and a reserve goalkeeper.

A number of trialists travelled with the Dons on their pre-season tour to Ireland and will be hoping that their commitment pays off with the offer of a full-time deal.

The ten day trip ends today (Wednesday) and included a 2-1 victory over Leinster Senior League outfit Bangor Celtic on Monday and another friendly clash against League of Ireland side Drogheda United last night.

Robinson said he planned to use yesterday's game to have a final look at some of the players hoping to turn out at stadiummk next season.

He is keeping his cards close to his chest about who might get the nod but the club have already shown faith by taking them on tour, and the boss said the trialists had made a positive impact.

Speaking to MK NEWS from Ireland, he said: "They have come in and done extremely well, so after the Drogheda game we will have to sit down and make a decision."

One trialist who has likely done enough is former Birmingham winger Jay O'Shea, who impressed in the club's first warm-up win against St Neots and found the target again against Bangor from the penalty spot.

The Irishman was lively in the clash in his home country and could be the winger Robinson is targeting.

John Dunleavy, another Irish player, played at right back against St Neots and Bangor and will also be aiming to sign a deal, but a move for fellow full-back Kerrea Gilbert looks to be a non-starter.

The ex-Arsenal man played a half against St Neots but has since gone on trial for League One rivals Yeovil.

Also on trial are young keeper Ian Mcloughlin, formerly of Leicester City, and defender Carl Magnay, who spent time with the Dons in 2009, on loan from Chelsea.

He flew out to Ireland on Saturday night to join the squad at their Dublin base and slotted into the line-up against Bangor.

A youthful Dons line-up controlled Monday's game from the outset but had to wait until two minutes into the second half before deservedly going in front through O'Shea's penalty.

Robinson made several changes after 55 minutes and two of those introduced were involved in the second Dons goal.

Sam Baldock's 75th minute free-kick smashed off the bottom of the post and Mathias Kouo-Doumbe prodded home the rebound.

Bangor pulled one back late on courtesy of a stunning volley which nestled in the top corner.

New boy Shaun shines on tour

SHAUN Williams has impressed Dons manager Karl Robinson so much that he could force his boss to tinker with his usual formation.

The 24-year-old Irishman joined the club in March after his previous club Sporting Fingal ceased to exist but registration issues meant that he was unable to appear for the Dons until this season.

As a result he was something of an unknown quantity but the midfielder has slotted straight into the Dons way of life on the club's tour to his homeland.

Robinson said he would be experimenting with different systems and formations during the Dons' two friendlies on Irish soil, and singled out Williams in particular as someone who could force a change in style when the League One season kicks off against Hartlepool on August 6.

"Williams has been exceptional while he has been here and may force us into changing our system slightly, we are going to work on two or three systems so we have a Plan A, Plan B and Plan C," he said.

Robinson, speaking to MK NEWS from Ireland, said the Irish tour had provided good preparation for his players ahead of the new league campaign.

The players were put through their paces with some gruelling fitness exercises, but the manager feels that his squad will be all the better for it.

Every player was also expected to get at least 90 minutes of football as Robinson plots promotion to the Championship.

He said: "The tour has gone really well, we're very pleased.

"Obviously the players are tired but we wanted to see how they would cope.

"Team spirit has been brilliant, and the attitude has been excellent.

"Everyone has bonded and the new signings Dean Bowditch and Darren Potter have settled in straight away."

The Dons will travel to League Two side Oxford United on Saturday for their first friendly following the tour.

An Academy side made the short trip to Newport Pagnell Town this weekend and claimed the Marshall Cup 5-4 on penalties after a 2-2 draw.

Ryan Plowright and George Williams both put the Dons ahead but Newport came from behind twice to level.

HOW OUR NEW PRICING POLICY FOR 2011-12 AFFECTS YOU!

We are making a number of changes to our concessionary pricing policy for 2011-12 which will benefit our younger supporters.

Under 16 Bracket extended to Under 18 AND to U21s in the Cowshed

From £6 per month

Over 30% of our season ticket holders are under 16 and we do recognise the financial burden on both younger supporters and their parents when they have to make the transition to a much higher season ticket price.

With this in mind, we have extended our Under-16 concessionary rate to an Under-18 price in several sections and up to Under-21 in the Cowshed, to help and encourage more and more of our supporters who are coming of age to continue to follow the MK Dons.

Under 7's

FREE with Young Dons Membership

We are delighted to continue our policy of allowing Under 7's free entry to all League games at *stadium*mk. Free entry is conditional on purchase of a Young Dons membership for £6 and Under 7's must be accompanied by an adult.

UNI SIX

From £6.75 per month

The Uni Six is a brand new initiative for 2011-12 especially designed for those supporters who leave Milton Keynes to go to college, university or further education elsewhere in the country

If you know you're going to be home from University for the Christmas period, for Easter or for a reading week, the Uni Six is the perfect package that allows you to stay with the Dons.
